SENATOR CHAMBERS: So they could keep people from getting good time and keep them locked up longer. Isn't that true?

SENATOR AGUILAR: If that was their ultimate goal, I would say so.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do they get the same amount of money whether they have 1 person in jail or 100 people in jail?

SENATOR AGUILAR: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So it's like a bounty. You get so much per person who's in jail. Is that right?

SENATOR AGUILAR: I wouldn't use that term.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, let's use a term that's more acceptable to you--guests. You get more money for the...based on the number of guests that you have that you're hosting. Is that true?

SENATOR AGUILAR: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, Senator Aguilar, if you were doing piecework for me and I said I've got 1,000 bricks on the left side of the building and I want them moved to the right side of the building, and you get so much per brick, if you're not moving bricks, are you making money?

SENATOR AGUILAR: That depends on your generosity, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If I'm not generous at all, I'm going to pay you only for what you do.

SENATOR AGUILAR: Then I wouldn't make any money.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. That's all that I...oh, there's something else I want to ask you. You mentioned a lease-purchase agreement. If a lease-purchase agreement is utilized, because we're not just talking about Hall County, and
